ORDER AMENDING RULE I(a) OF THE DISCIPLINARY CODE FOR THE WYOMING STATE BAR

The court having deemed it necessary and proper to amend Rule I(a) of The Disciplinary Code for the Wyoming State Bar to delete the language "or terminated" set forth therein, it is therefore

ORDERED that Rule I(a) of The Disciplinary Code for the Wyoming State Bar shall be, and it is hereby amended, effective this date, to read as follows:

Rule I. Jurisdiction of court and State Board of Professional Responsibility.

(a) Any attorney regularly admitted to practice law in this state or any attorney specially admitted to practice by a court of this state or any individual admitted to practice as an attorney in any other jurisdiction who regularly engages in the practice of law within this state as house counsel to corporations or other entities, counsel for governmental agencies or otherwise, or any attorney who was subject to the jurisdiction of this court under any of the above but whose membership in the bar has been suspended ~~or terminated~~ for nonpayment of dues, failure to comply with continuing legal education requirements, or any other nondisciplinary reason, is subject to the exclusive disciplinary jurisdiction of this court and the State Board of Professional Responsibility hereinafter established.

FURTHER ORDERED that the foregoing amendment of Rule I(a) of the Disciplinary Code for the Wyoming State Bar be published in the advance sheets of the Pacific Reporter and in the Wyoming Reporter and thereafter be spread upon the journal of this court.

DATED August 31st, 1990.
