

WYOMING RULES OF EVIDENCE

August 26, 1977

IN THE SUPREME COURT, STATE OF WYOMING

APRIL TERM, A.D. 1977

IN THE MATTER OF THE)
ADOPTION OF WYOMING RULES) OF EVIDENCE)

O R D E R

This court on March 25, 1975, requested the Permanent Rules Committee and the Wyoming Rules of Criminal Procedure Advisory Committee to study the Federal Rules of Evidence with the view of adopting them, as they may be deemed practical, as the Wyoming Rules of Evidence. The members of the Permanent Rules Committee when consideration of the Rules of Evidence was accomplished were: Frank J. Trelease, Chairman, Honorable Joseph F. Maier, Honorable Harold Joffe, Richard R. Bostwick, David H. Carmichael, G.L. Spence, and Lawrence Yonkee. The members of the Wyoming Rules of Criminal Procedure Advisory Committee were: Honorable J. Reuel Armstrong, Chairman, James P. Castberg, Thomas L. Whitley, Gerald M. Gallivan and Robert B. Ranck.

The members of the committees having conducted research, conferred among themselves and with Chris Mueller, Professor of Evidence, University of Wyoming, on numerous occasions; having conferred with the court and presented to the court a copy of the rules entitled "Wyoming Rules of Evidence" which is herewith filed with this order; and the committee having recommended and the court having approved said Rules of Evidence together with the necessary changes in the Wyoming Rules of Civil Procedure and Wyoming Rules of Criminal Procedure to make them and the Wyoming Rules of Evidence consistent;

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED by this court that the rules entitled "Wyoming Rules of Evidence" filed herewith be adopted; that said rules be published at least 60 days prior to January 1, 1978, in the advance sheets of the Pacific Reporter and thereafter in the Wyoming Reporter; that copies of the rules shall be distributed to members of the Wyoming State Bar; that said rules shall become effective January 1, 1978, and thereupon spread at length on the journal of this court.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED by this court that the procedural statutes enumerated in Section 1102 of the Wyoming Rules of Evidence are hereby superseded; that Rules 32(c), 43(b) and (c), and 44 Wyoming Rules of Civil Procedure are hereby abrogated; that Rules 30(c), 43 and 44.1 Wyoming Rules of Civil Procedure and Rules 27, 27.1 and 29 Wyoming Rules of Criminal Procedure are hereby amended to conform verbatim to the new and amended provisions of such rules as appear in the attachment to the Wyoming Rules of Evidence.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the abrogations and amendments to said procedural rules be published, distributed and become effective concurrently with the Wyoming Rules of Evidence; that this order be spread at length upon the journal of this court.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the committees and their consultants be commended for the excellence of their work and that the gratitudes of the court be extended to each member.

Dated at Cheyenne, Wyoming this 26th day of August, 1977.

BY THE COURT:

Rodney M. Guthrie, Chief Justice

WYOMING RULES OF EVIDENCE

Wyoming Committee Note as to Sources and Reference Materials

The Federal Rules of Evidence for United States Courts and Magistrates, enacted by Congress as P.L. 93-595, amended by P.L. 94-113 and P.L. 94-149, effective July 1, 1975, were based in large part on a set of Rules of Evidence adopted by the Supreme Court of the United States on November 20, 1972 and transmitted to Congress on February 5, 1973. The Uniform Rules of Evidence, closely modeled on the federal rules, were promulgated by the National Conference of Commissioners on Uniform State Laws in August, 1974.

The Wyoming Rules of Evidence are based on the policy that conformity to federal practice is more important than uniformity of state practice. Therefore, except as indicated in a "Wyoming Committee Note" following a rule or subdivision thereof, the Wyoming Rules of Evidence are the federal rules, verbatim. No notice is made, however, of formal modifications of the federal rules designed to eliminate federal references and to adapt the rules to Wyoming practice. Where a substantial change is modeled upon the Uniform Rule, that fact is noted.

The Federal Judicial Center has prepared a compilation of the Advisory Committee's Notes to the Supreme Court Rules, of the relevant portions of the Reports of the House Committee on the Judiciary, the Senate Committee on the Judiciary, and the Conference Committee, and of extracts from the Congressional Record. West Publishing Company has reprinted the Federal Rules of Evidence, with the above-mentioned Notes and Reports, in a convenient paperback format. It is strongly recommended that the notes of the Advisory Committee and Congressional Committees be consulted for citations, explanations and better understanding of the rules.

The Prefatory Note to and Comments on the Uniform Rules may be found in Handbook of the National Conference of Commissioners on Uniform State Laws, 916-950 (1974).

I. GENERAL PROVISIONS

- Rule 101. Scope.
 Rule 102. Purpose and construction.
 Rule 103. Rulings on evidence:
 (a) Effect of erroneous ruling:
 (1) Objection.
 (2) Offer of proof.
 (b) Record of offer and ruling.
 (c) Hearing of jury.
 Rule 104. Preliminary questions:
 (a) Questions of admissibility generally.
 (b) Relevancy conditioned on fact.
 (c) Hearing of jury.
 (d) Testimony by accused.
 (e) Weight and credibility.
 Rule 105. Limited admissibility.
 Rule 106. Remainder of or related writings or recorded statements.

RULE 101. SCOPE

These rules govern proceedings in the courts of this State to the extent and with the exceptions stated in rule 1101.

RULE 102. PURPOSE AND CONSTRUCTION

These rules shall be construed to secure fairness in administration, elimination of unjustifiable expense and delay, and promotion of growth and development of the law of evidence to the end that the truth may be ascertained and proceedings justly determined.

RULE 103. RULINGS ON EVIDENCE

(a) Effect of erroneous ruling. Error may not be predicated upon a ruling which admits or excludes evidence unless a substantial right of the party is affected, and

(1) Objection. In case the ruling is one admitting evidence, a timely objection or motion to strike appears of record, stating the specific ground of objection, if the specific ground was not apparent from the context; or

(2) Offer of Proof. In case the ruling is one excluding evidence, the substance of the evidence was made known to the court by offer or was apparent from the context within which questions were asked.

(b) Record of offer and ruling. The court may add any other or further statement which shows the character of the evidence, the form in which it was offered, the objection made, and the ruling thereon. It may direct the making of an offer in question and answer form.

(c) Hearing of jury. In jury cases, proceedings shall be conducted, to the extent practicable, so as to prevent inadmissible evidence from being suggested to the jury by any means, such as making statements or offers of proof or asking questions in the hearing of the jury.

(d) Plain error. Nothing in this rule precludes taking notice of plain errors affecting substantial rights although they were not brought to the attention of the court.

Wyoming Committee Note: Under Rule 103(a), it is not necessary to re-offer evidence which has been suppressed by action of the court on a pretrial motion, such as a motion in limine or a motion to suppress, or to make a further objection at the time of trial to evidence which has previously been ruled admissible on such a pretrial motion.

RULE 104. PRELIMINARY QUESTIONS

(a) Questions of admissibility generally. Preliminary questions concerning the qualification of a person to be a witness, the existence of a privilege, or the admissibility of evidence shall be determined by the court, subject to the provisions of subdivision (b). In making its determination it is not bound by the rules of evidence except those with respect to privileges.

(b) Relevancy conditioned on fact. When the relevancy of evidence depends upon the fulfillment of a condition of fact, the court shall admit it upon, or subject to, the introduction of evidence sufficient to support a finding of the fulfillment of the condition.

(c) Hearing of jury. Hearings on the admissibility of confessions shall in all cases be conducted out of the hearing of the jury. Hearings on other preliminary matters shall be so conducted when the interests of justice require or, when an accused is a witness, if he so requests.

(d) Testimony by accused. The accused does not, by testifying upon a preliminary matter, subject himself to cross-examination as to other issues in the case.

(e) Weight and credibility. This rule does not limit the right of a party to introduce before the jury evidence relevant to weight or credibility.

RULE 105. LIMITED ADMISSIBILITY

When evidence which is admissible as to one party or for one purpose but not admissible as to another party or for another purpose is admitted, the court, upon request, shall restrict the evidence to its proper scope and instruct the jury accordingly.

RULE 106. REMAINDER OF OR RELATED WRITINGS OR RECORDED STATEMENTS

When a writing or recorded statement or part thereof is introduced by a party, an adverse party may require him at that time to introduce any other part or any other writing or recorded statement which ought in fairness to be considered contemporaneously with it.

II. JUDICIAL NOTICE

Rule 201. Judicial notice of adjudicative facts:

- (a) Scope of rule.
- (b) Kinds of facts.
- (c) When discretionary.
- (d) When mandatory.
- (e) Opportunity to be heard.
- (f) Time of taking notice.
- (g) Instructing jury.

RULE 201. JUDICIAL NOTICE OF ADJUDICATIVE FACTS

(a) Scope of rule. This rule governs only judicial notice of adjudicative facts.

(b) Kinds of facts. A judicially-noticed fact must be one not subject to reasonable dispute in that it is either (1) generally known within the territorial jurisdiction of the trial court or (2) capable of accurate and ready determination by resort to sources whose accuracy cannot reasonably be questioned.

(c) When discretionary. A court may take judicial notice, whether requested or not.

(d) When mandatory. A court shall take judicial notice if requested by a party and supplied with the necessary information.

(e) Opportunity to be heard. A party is entitled upon timely request to an opportunity to be heard as to the propriety of taking judicial notice and the tenor of the matter noticed. In the absence of prior notification, the request may be made after judicial notice has been taken.

(f) Time of taking notice. Judicial notice may be taken at any stage of the proceeding.

(g) Instructing jury. In a civil action or proceeding, the court shall instruct the jury to accept as conclusive any fact judicially noticed. In a criminal case, the court shall instruct the jury that it may, but is not required to, accept as conclusive any fact judicially noticed.

Wyoming Supreme Court Note: This rule does not affect the Uniform Judicial Notice of Foreign Law Act, formerly §§ 1-178 through 1-185, W.S. 1957, recodified in 1977 as §§ 1-12-601 through 1-12-606, W.S. 1957, 1977 Cum.Supp. Also unaffected by this rule are § 9-276.26(d), W.S. 1957, 1975 Cum.Supp. and Rule 44.1, W.R.C.P.

III. PRESUMPTIONS

- Rule 301. Presumptions in general in civil actions and proceedings.
- (a) Effect.
- (b) Inconsistent presumptions.
- Rule 302. Applicability of federal law in civil actions and proceedings.
- Rule 303. Presumptions in criminal cases.
- (a) Scope.
- (b) Submission to jury.
- (c) Instructing the jury.

RULE 301. PRESUMPTIONS IN GENERAL IN CIVIL ACTIONS AND PROCEEDINGS

(a) Effect. In all civil actions and proceedings not otherwise provided for by statute or by these rules, a presumption imposes on the party against whom it is directed the burden of proving that the nonexistence of the presumed fact is more probable than its existence.

(b) Inconsistent presumptions. If presumptions are inconsistent, the presumption applies that is founded upon weightier considerations of policy. If considerations of policy are of equal weight neither presumption applies.

Wyoming Supreme Court Note: This is the uniform rule except added the word "civil" in (a).

RULE 302. APPLICABILITY OF FEDERAL LAW IN CIVIL ACTIONS AND PROCEEDINGS

In civil actions and proceedings, the effect of a presumption respecting a fact which is an element of a claim or defense as to which federal law supplies the rule of decision is determined in accordance with federal law.

RULE 303. PRESUMPTIONS IN CRIMINAL CASES

(a) Scope. Except as otherwise provided by statute, in criminal cases, presumptions against an accused, recognized at common law or created by statute, including statutory provisions that certain facts are prima facie evidence of other facts or of guilt, are governed by this rule.

(b) Submission to jury. The court is not authorized to direct the jury to find a presumed fact against the accused. If a presumed fact establishes guilt or is an element of the offense or negatives a defense, the court may submit the question of guilt or of the existence of the presumed fact to the jury, but only if a reasonable juror on the evidence as a whole, including the evidence of the basic facts, could find guilt or the presumed fact beyond a reasonable doubt. If the presumed fact has a lesser effect, the question of its existence may be submitted to the jury provided the basic facts are supported by substantial evidence or are otherwise established, unless the court determines that a reasonable juror on the evidence as a whole could not find the existence of the presumed fact.

(c) Instructing the jury. Whenever the existence of a presumed fact against the accused is submitted to the jury, the court shall instruct the jury that it may regard the basic facts as sufficient evidence of the presumed fact but is not required to do so. In addition, if the presumed fact establishes guilt or is an element of the offense or negatives a defense, the court shall instruct the jury that its existence, on all the evidence, must be proved beyond a reasonable doubt.

Wyoming Committee Note: There is no federal rule 303. This is the Uniform Rule.

IV. RELEVANCY AND ITS LIMITS

- Rule 401. Definition of "relevant evidence".
- Rule 402. Relevant evidence generally admissible; irrelevant evidence inadmissible.
- Rule 403. Exclusion of relevant evidence on grounds of prejudice, confusion, or waste of time.
- Rule 404. Character evidence not admissible to prove conduct; exceptions; other crimes:
 - (a) Character evidence generally:
 - (1) Character of accused.
 - (2) Character of victim.
 - (3) Character of witness.
 - (b) Other crimes, wrongs, or acts.
- Rule 405. Methods of proving character:
 - (a) Reputation or opinion.
 - (b) Specific instances of conduct.
- Rule 406. Habit; routine practice.
- Rule 407. Subsequent remedial measures.
- Rule 408. Compromise and offers to compromise.
- Rule 409. Payment of medical and similar expenses.
- Rule 410. Withdrawn pleas and offers.
- Rule 411. Liability insurance.

RULE 401. DEFINITION OF "RELEVANT EVIDENCE"

"Relevant evidence" means evidence having any tendency to make the existence of any fact that is of consequence to the determination of the action more probable or less probable than it would be without the evidence.

RULE 402. RELEVANT EVIDENCE GENERALLY ADMISSIBLE; IRRELEVANT EVIDENCE INADMISSIBLE

All relevant evidence is admissible, except as otherwise provided by statute, by these rules, or by other rules prescribed by the Supreme Court. Evidence which is not relevant is not admissible.

RULE 403. EXCLUSION OF RELEVANT EVIDENCE ON GROUNDS OF PREJUDICE, CONFUSION, OR WASTE OF TIME

Although relevant, evidence may be excluded if its probative value is substantially outweighed by the danger of unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, or misleading the jury, or by considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence.

RULE 404. CHARACTER EVIDENCE NOT ADMISSIBLE TO PROVE CONDUCT; EXCEPTIONS; OTHER CRIMES

(a) Character evidence generally. Evidence of a person's character or a trait of his character is not admissible for the purpose of proving that he acted in conformity therewith on a particular occasion, except:

(1) Character of accused. Evidence of a pertinent trait of his character offered by an accused, or by the prosecution to rebut the same;

(2) Character of victim. Evidence of a pertinent trait of character of the victim of the crime offered by an accused, or by the prosecution to rebut the same, or evidence of a character trait of peacefulness of the victim offered by the prosecution in a homicide case to rebut evidence that the victim was the first aggressor;

(3) Character of witness. Evidence of the character of a witness, as provided in rules 607, 608, and 609.

(b) Other crimes, wrongs, or acts. Evidence of other crimes, wrongs, or acts is not admissible to prove the character of a person in order to show that he acted in conformity therewith. It may, however, be admissible for other purposes, such as proof of motive, opportunity, intent, preparation, plan, knowledge, identity, or absence of mistake or accident.

Wyoming Supreme Court Note: Rule 404 is not intended to modify in any way the provisions of the sexual assault law enacted in 1977 as §§ 6-63.1 through 6-64, W.S. 1957, 1977 Cum.Supp. See especially the section on evidence of the character of the victim, § 6-63.12.

RULE 405. METHODS OF PROVING CHARACTER

(a) Reputation or opinion. In all cases in which evidence of character or a trait of character of a person is admissible, proof may be made by testimony as to reputation or by testimony in the form of an opinion. On cross-examination, inquiry is allowable into relevant specific instances of conduct.

(b) Specific instances of conduct. In cases in which character or a trait of character of a person is an essential element of a charge, claim, or defense, or is in issue under Rule 404(a)(2), proof may also be made of specific instances of his conduct.

Wyoming Committee Note: Subsection (b) adds "or is in issue under Rule 404(a)(2)," to the federal rule.

Wyoming Supreme Court Note: The purpose of the added language in subsection (b) is to insure that the accused in assault or homicide cases may introduce evidence of specific instances of the victim's conduct to prove that the victim was the first aggressor.

RULE 406. HABIT; ROUTINE PRACTICE

Evidence of the habit of a person or of the routine practice of an organization, whether corroborated or not and regardless of the presence of eyewitnesses, is relevant to prove that the conduct of the person or organization on a particular occasion was in conformity with the habit or routine practice.

RULE 407. SUBSEQUENT REMEDIAL MEASURES

When, after an event, measures are taken which, if taken previously, would have made the event less likely to occur, evidence of the subsequent measures is not admissible to prove negligence or culpable conduct in connection with the event. This rule does not require the exclusion of evidence of subsequent measures when offered for another purpose, such as proving ownership, control, or feasibility of precautionary measures, if controverted, or impeachment.

Wyoming Committee Note: Rather than recommending an amendment, the Wyoming Committee states that it interprets "culpable conduct" as not encompassing breach of warranty or strict liability. See Ault v. International Harvester Co., 13 Cal.3d 113, 17 Cal.Rptr. 812, 528 P.2d 1148 (1974), and Robbins v. Farmers Union Grain Terminal Ass'n, 8th Cir. 1977, 552 F.2d 788.

RULE 408. COMPROMISE AND OFFERS TO COMPROMISE

Evidence of (1) furnishing or offering or promising to furnish, or (2) accepting or offering or promising to accept, a valuable consideration in compromising or attempting to compromise a claim which was disputed as to either validity or amount, is not admissible to prove liability for or invalidity of the claim or its amount. Evidence of conduct or statements made in compromise negotiations is likewise not admissible. This rule does not require exclusion when the evidence is offered for another purpose, such as proving bias or prejudice of a witness, negating a contention of undue delay, or proving an effort to obstruct a criminal investigation or prosecution.

truthfulness or untruthfulness, and (2) evidence of truthful character is admissible only after the character of the witness for truthfulness has been attacked by opinion or reputation evidence or otherwise.

(b) Specific instances of conduct. Specific instances of the conduct of a witness, for the purpose of attacking or supporting his credibility, other than conviction of crime as provided in rule 609, may not be proved by extrinsic evidence. They may, however, in the discretion of the court, if probative of truthfulness or untruthfulness, be inquired into on cross-examination of the witness (1) concerning his character for truthfulness or untruthfulness, or (2) concerning the character for truthfulness or untruthfulness of another witness as to which character the witness being cross-examined has testified.

The giving of testimony, whether by an accused or by any other witness, does not operate as a waiver of his privilege against self-incrimination when examined with respect to matters which relate only to credibility.

RULE 609. IMPEACHMENT BY EVIDENCE OF CONVICTION OF CRIME

(a) General rule. For the purpose of attacking the credibility of a witness, evidence that he has been convicted of a crime shall be admitted if elicited from him or established by public record during cross-examination but only if the crime (1) was punishable by death or imprisonment in excess of one year under the law under which he was convicted, and the court determines that the probative value of admitting this evidence outweighs its prejudicial effect to the defendant, or (2) involved dishonesty or false statement, regardless of the punishment.

(b) Time limit. Evidence of a conviction under this rule is not admissible if a period of more than ten years has elapsed since the date of the conviction or of the release of the witness from the confinement imposed for that conviction, whichever is the later date, unless the court determines, in the interests of justice, that the probative value of the conviction supported by specific facts and circumstances substantially outweighs its prejudicial effect. However, evidence of a conviction more than ten years old as calculated herein, is not admissible unless the proponent gives to the adverse party sufficient advance written notice of intent to use such evidence to provide the adverse party with a fair opportunity to contest the use of such evidence.

(c) Effect of pardon, annulment, or certificate of rehabilitation. Evidence of a conviction is not admissible under this rule if (1) the conviction has been the subject of a pardon, annulment, certificate of rehabilitation, or other equivalent procedure based on a finding of the rehabilitation of the person convicted, and that person has not been convicted of a subsequent crime which was punishable by death or imprisonment in excess of one year, or (2) the conviction has been the subject of a pardon, annulment, or other equivalent procedure based on a finding of innocence.

(d) Juvenile adjudications. Evidence of juvenile adjudications is generally not admissible under this rule. The court may, however, in a criminal case allow evidence of a juvenile adjudication of a witness other than the accused if conviction of the offense would be admissible to attack the credibility of an adult and the court is satisfied that admission in evidence is necessary for a fair determination of the issue of guilt or innocence.

(e) Pendency of appeal. The pendency of an appeal therefrom does not render evidence of a conviction inadmissible. Evidence of the pendency of an appeal is admissible.

Wyoming Committee Note: Under rule 609(d) the admissibility of a juvenile adjudication is left to the sound discretion of the trial court. The Juvenile Court Act, § 14-115.40, W.S. 1957, 1977 Cum.Supp., imposes a confidentiality upon all court records of proceedings under that Act which might raise the question of the availability of juvenile adjudications under this rule. The United States Supreme Court in Davis v. Alaska, 415 U.S. 308, 94 S.Ct. 1105, 39 L.Ed.2d 347 (1974) held that the "right of confrontation is paramount to the State's policy of protecting a juvenile offender." Some state courts have read Davis broadly to permit or require the use of juvenile "convictions" for impeachment. The claim in Davis, however, was narrower than a general claim of a right to impeach credibility by prior conviction. The juvenile conviction was introduced to show bias or prejudice in that the witness was then on probation and was acting out of fear or concern of a possible jeopardy to his probation. The Committee believes that the rule conforms to the narrower view of the Davis holding.

RULE 610. RELIGIOUS BELIEFS OR OPINIONS

Evidence of the beliefs or opinions of a witness on matters of religion is not admissible for the purpose of showing that by reason of their nature his credibility is impaired or enhanced.

RULE 611. MODE AND ORDER OF INTERROGATION AND PRESENTATION

(a) Control by court. The court shall exercise reasonable control over the mode and order of interrogating witnesses and presenting evidence so as to (1) make the interrogation and presentation effective for the ascertainment of the truth, (2) avoid needless consumption of time, and (3) protect witnesses from harassment or undue embarrassment.

(b) Scope of cross-examination. Cross-examination should be limited to the subject matter of the direct examination and matters affecting the credibility of the witness. The court may, in the exercise of discretion, permit inquiry into additional matters as if on direct examination.

(c) Leading questions. Leading questions should not be used on the direct examination of a witness except as may be necessary to develop his testimony. Ordinarily leading questions should be permitted on cross-examination. When a party calls a hostile witness, an adverse party, or a witness identified with an adverse party, interrogation may be by leading questions.

RULE 612. WRITING OR OBJECT USED TO REFRESH MEMORY

(a) While testifying. If, while testifying, a witness uses a writing or object to refresh his memory, an adverse party is entitled to have the writing or object produced at the trial, hearing, or deposition in which the witness is testifying.

(b) Before testifying. If, before testifying, a witness uses a writing or object to refresh his memory for the purpose of testifying and the court in its discretion determines that the interests of justice so require, an adverse party is entitled to have the writing or object produced, if practicable, at the trial, hearing, or deposition in which the witness is testifying.

(c) Terms and conditions of production and use. A party entitled to have a writing or object produced under this rule is entitled to inspect it, to cross-examine the witness thereon, and to introduce in evidence those portions which relate to the testimony of the witness. If production of the writing or object at the trial, hearing, or deposition is impracticable, the court may order it made available for inspection. If it is claimed that the writing or object contains matters not related to the subject matter of the testimony, the court shall examine the writing or object in camera, excise any portions not so related, and order delivery of the remainder to the party entitled thereto. Any portion withheld over objections shall be preserved and made available to the appellate court in the event of an appeal. If a writing or object is not produced, made available for inspection, or delivered pursuant to order under this rule, the court shall make any order justice requires, but in criminal cases if the prosecution elects not to comply, the order shall be one striking the testimony or, if the court in its discretion determines that the interests of justice so require, declaring a mistrial.

Wyoming Committee Note: This is the Uniform Rule. The federal rule is made applicable only, "Except as otherwise provided in criminal proceedings by Section 3500 of Title 18, United States Code" - The "Jencks Act", substantially Rule 18(c), W.R.Cr.P. The omission of this phrase makes the Wyoming Rule broader than the federal rule. The purpose of WRE 612 is the same as that of Rule 18(c), W.R.Cr.P.: To promote credibility and memory. Since many writings would qualify under either rule, a substantial overlap may exist in criminal cases, and either rule may be available. Some differences are: (1) Rule 18(c), W.R.Cr.P. applies only to the State's witnesses, WRE 612 to all witnesses; (2) Rule 18(c), W.R.Cr.P. contains no requirement that the statement be consulted for purposes of refreshment before or while testifying, while WRE 612 so requires. The procedures and consequences of nonproduction by the State under both rules are the same.

RULE 613. PRIOR STATEMENTS OF WITNESSES

(a) Examining witness concerning prior statement. In examining a witness concerning a prior statement made by him, whether written or not, the statement need not be shown nor its contents disclosed to him at that time, but on request the same shall be shown or disclosed to opposing counsel.

(b) Extrinsic evidence of prior inconsistent statement of witness. Extrinsic evidence of a prior inconsistent statement by a witness is not admissible unless the witness is afforded an opportunity to explain or deny the same and the opposite party is afforded an opportunity to interrogate him thereon, or the interests of justice otherwise require. This provision does not apply to admissions of a party-opponent as defined in Rule 801(d)(2).

RULE 614. CALLING AND INTERROGATION OF WITNESSES BY COURT

(a) Calling by court. The court may, on its own motion or at the suggestion of a party, call witnesses, and all parties are entitled to cross-examine witnesses thus called.

(b) Interrogation by court. The court may interrogate witnesses, whether called by itself or by a party.

(c) Objections. Objections to the calling of witnesses by the court or to interrogation by it may be made at the time or at the next available opportunity when the jury is not present.

RULE 615. EXCLUSION OF WITNESSES

At the request of a party the court shall order witnesses excluded so that they cannot hear the testimony of other witnesses, and it may make the order of its own motion. This rule does not authorize exclusion of (1) a party who is a natural person, or (2) an officer or employee of a party which is not a natural person designated as its representative by its attorney, or (3) a person whose presence is shown by a party to be essential to the presentation of his cause.

VII. OPINIONS AND EXPERT TESTIMONY

- Rule 701. Opinion testimony by lay witnesses.
Rule 702. Testimony by experts.
Rule 703. Bases of opinion testimony by experts.
Rule 704. Opinion on ultimate issue.
Rule 705. Disclosure of facts or data underlying expert opinion.
Rule 706. Court-appointed experts:
 (a) Appointment.
 (b) Compensation.
 (c) Disclosure of appointment.
 (d) Parties' experts of own selection.

RULE 701. OPINION TESTIMONY BY LAY WITNESSES

If the witness is not testifying as an expert, his testimony in the form of opinions or inferences is limited to those opinions or inferences which are (a) rationally based on the perception of the witness and (b) helpful to a clear understanding of his testimony or the determination of a fact in issue.

RULE 702. TESTIMONY BY EXPERTS

If scientific, technical, or other specialized knowledge will assist the trier of fact to understand the evidence or to determine a fact in issue, a witness qualified as an expert by knowledge, skill, experience, training, or education, may testify thereto in the form of an opinion or otherwise.

RULE 703. BASES OF OPINION TESTIMONY BY EXPERTS

The facts or data in the particular case upon which an expert bases an opinion or inference may be those perceived by or made known to him at or before the hearing. If of a type reasonably relied upon by experts in the particular field in forming opinions or inferences upon the subject, the facts or data need not be admissible in evidence.

RULE 704. OPINION ON ULTIMATE ISSUE

Testimony in the form of an opinion or inference otherwise admissible is not objectionable because it embraces an ultimate issue to be decided by the trier of fact.

RULE 705. DISCLOSURE OF FACTS OR DATA UNDERLYING EXPERT OPINION

The expert may testify in terms of opinion or inference and give his reasons therefor without prior disclosure of the underlying facts or data, unless the court requires otherwise. The expert may in any event be required to disclose the underlying facts or data on cross-examination.

RULE 706. COURT-APPOINTED EXPERTS

(a) Appointment. The court may on its own motion or on the motion of any party enter an order to show cause why expert witnesses should not be appointed, and may request the parties to submit nominations. The court may appoint any expert witnesses agreed upon by the parties, and may appoint expert witnesses of its own selection. An expert witness shall not be appointed by the court unless he consents to act. A witness so appointed shall be informed of his duties by the court in writing, a copy of which shall be filed with the clerk, or at a conference in which the parties shall have opportunity to participate. A witness so appointed shall advise the parties of his findings, if any; his deposition may be taken by any party; and he may be called to testify by the court or any party. He shall be subject to cross-examination by each party, including a party calling him as a witness.

(b) Compensation. Expert witnesses so appointed are entitled to reasonable compensation in whatever sum the court may allow. The compensation thus fixed is payable from funds which may be provided by law in criminal cases and civil actions. In civil actions and proceedings the compensation shall be paid by the parties in such proportion and at such time as the court directs, and thereafter charged in like manner as other costs.

(c) Disclosure of appointment. In the exercise of its discretion, the court may authorize disclosure to the jury of the fact that the court appointed the expert witness.

(d) Parties' experts of own selection. Nothing in this rule limits the parties in calling expert witnesses of their own selection.

Wyoming Committee Note: This is the federal rule with an omission from (b) of a provision for payment from public funds in "proceedings involving just compensation under the fifth amendment." In Wyoming condemnation proceedings the state is not always the plaintiff and Rule 71.1(1) W.R.C.P. provides for apportionment of costs.

VIII. HEARSAY

- Rule 801. Definitions:
- (a) Statement.
 - (b) Declarant.
 - (c) Hearsay.
 - (d) Statements which are not hearsay:
 - (1) Prior statement by witness.
 - (2) Admission by party-opponent.
- Rule 802. Hearsay rule.
- Rule 803. Hearsay exceptions; availability of declarant immaterial:
- (1) Present sense impression.
 - (2) Excited utterance.
 - (3) Then existing mental, emotional, or physical condition.
 - (4) Statements for purposes of medical diagnosis or treatment.
 - (5) Recorded recollection.
 - (6) Records of regularly conducted activity.
 - (7) Absence of entry in records kept in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (6).
 - (8) Public records and reports.
 - (9) Records of vital statistics.
 - (10) Absence of public record or entry.
 - (11) Records of religious organizations.
 - (12) Marriage, baptismal, and similar certificates.
 - (13) Family records.
 - (14) Records of documents affecting an interest in property.
 - (15) Statements in documents affecting an interest in property.
 - (16) Statements in ancient documents.
 - (17) Market reports, commercial publications.
 - (18) Learned treatises.
 - (19) Reputation concerning personal or family history.
 - (20) Reputation concerning boundaries or general history.
 - (21) Reputation as to character.
 - (22) Judgment of previous conviction.
 - (23) Judgment as to personal, family, or general history, or boundaries.
 - (24) Other exceptions.
- Rule 804. Hearsay exceptions; declarant unavailable:

- (a) Definition of unavailability.
- (b) Hearsay exceptions:
 - (1) Former testimony.
 - (2) Statement under belief of impending death.
 - (3) Statement against interest.
 - (4) Statement of personal or family history.
 - (5) Statement of recent perception.
 - (6) Other exceptions.

Rule 805. Hearsay within hearsay.

Rule 806. Attacking and supporting credibility of declarant.

RULE 801. DEFINITIONS

The following definitions apply under this article:

(a) Statement. A "statement" is (1) an oral or written assertion or (2) nonverbal conduct of a person, if it is intended by him as an assertion.

(b) Declarant. A "declarant" is a person who makes a statement.

(c) Hearsay. "Hearsay" is a statement, other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the trial or hearing, offered in evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted.

(d) Statements which are not hearsay. A statement is not hearsay if--

(1) Prior statement by witness. The declarant testifies at the trial or hearing and is subject to cross-examination concerning the statement, and the statement is (A) inconsistent with his testimony, and, if offered in a criminal proceeding, was given under oath subject to the penalty of perjury at a trial, hearing, or other proceeding, or in a deposition, or (B) consistent with his testimony and is offered to rebut an express or implied charge against him of recent fabrication or improper influence or motive, or (C) one of identification of a person made after perceiving him; or

(2) Admission by party-opponent. The statement is offered against a party and is (A) his own statement, in either his individual or a representative capacity, or (B) a statement of which he has manifested his adoption or belief in its truth, or (C) a statement by a person authorized by him to make a statement concerning the subject, or (D) a statement by his agent or servant concerning a matter within the scope of his agency or employment, made during the existence of the relationship, or (E) a statement by a coconspirator of a party during the course and in furtherance of the conspiracy.

Wyoming Committee Note: This is the federal rule with the addition of "if offered in a criminal proceeding" in subsection (d)(1)(A).

RULE 802. HEARSAY RULE

Hearsay is not admissible except as provided by these rules or by other rules adopted by the Supreme Court of Wyoming or by statute.

Wyoming Committee Note: A statute superseded by rule 1102 is not a statute referred to by this rule.

RULE 803. HEARSAY EXCEPTIONS; AVAILABILITY OF DECLARANT IMMATERIAL

The following are not excluded by the hearsay rule, even though the declarant is available as a witness:

(1) Present sense impression. A statement describing or explaining an event or condition made while the declarant was perceiving the event or condition, or immediately thereafter.

(2) Excited utterance. A statement relating to a startling event or condition made while the declarant was under the stress of excitement caused by the event or condition.

(3) Then existing mental, emotional, or physical condition. A statement of the declarant's then existing state of mind, emotion, sensation, or physical condition (such as intent, plan, motive, design, mental feeling, pain, and bodily health), but not including a statement of memory or belief to prove the fact remembered or believed unless it relates to the execution, revocation, identification, or terms of declarant's will.

(4) Statements for purposes of medical diagnosis or treatment. Statements made for purposes of medical diagnosis or treatment and describing medical history, or past or present symptoms, pain, or sensations, or the inception or general character of the cause or external source thereof insofar as reasonably pertinent to diagnosis or treatment.

(5) Recorded recollection. A memorandum or record concerning a matter about which a witness once had knowledge but now has insufficient recollection to enable him to testify fully and accurately, shown to have been made or adopted by the witness when the matter was fresh in his memory and to reflect that knowledge correctly. If admitted, the memorandum or record may be read into evidence but may not itself be received as an exhibit unless offered by an adverse party.

(6) Records of regularly conducted activity. A memorandum, report, record, or data compilation, in any form, of acts, events, conditions, opinions, or diagnoses, made at or near the time by, or from information transmitted by, a person with knowledge, if kept in the course of a regularly conducted business activity, and if it was the regular practice of that business activity to make the memorandum, report, record, or data compilation, all as shown by the testimony of the custodian or other qualified witness, unless the source of information or the method or circumstances of preparation indicate lack of trustworthiness. The term "business" as used in this paragraph includes business, institution, association, profession, occupation, and calling of every kind, whether or not conducted for profit.

(7) Absence of entry in records kept in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (6). Evidence that a matter is not included in the memoranda reports, records, or data compilations, in any form, kept in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (6), to prove the nonoccurrence or nonexistence of the matter, if the matter was of a kind of which a memorandum, report, record, or data compilation was regularly made and preserved, unless the sources of information or other circumstances indicate lack of trustworthiness.

(8) Public records and reports. Records, reports, statements, or data compilations, in any form, of public offices or agencies, setting forth (A) the activities of the office or agency, or (B) matters observed pursuant to duty imposed by law as to which matters there was a duty to report, excluding, however, in criminal cases matters observed by police officers and other law enforcement personnel, or (C) in civil actions and proceedings and against the State in criminal cases, factual findings resulting from an investigation made pursuant to authority granted by law, unless the sources of information or other circumstances indicate lack of trustworthiness.

(9) Records of vital statistics. Records or data compilations, in any form, of births, fetal deaths, deaths, or marriages, if the report thereof was made to a public office pursuant to requirements of law.

(10) Absence of public record or entry. To prove the absence of a record, report, statement, or data compilation, in any form, or the nonoccurrence or nonexistence of a matter of which a record, report, statement, or data compilation, in any form, was regularly made and preserved by a public office or agency, evidence in the form of a certification in accordance with rule 902, or testimony, that diligent search failed to disclose the record, report, statement, or data compilation, or entry.

(11) Records of religious organizations. Statements of births, marriages, divorces, deaths, legitimacy, ancestry, relationship by blood or marriage, or other similar facts of personal or family history, contained in a regularly kept record of a religious organization.

(12) Marriage, baptismal, and similar certificates. Statements of fact contained in a certificate that the maker performed a marriage or other ceremony or administered a sacrament, made by a clergyman, public official, or other person authorized by the rules or practices of a religious organization or by law to perform the act certified, and purporting to have been issued at the time of the act or within a reasonable time thereafter.

(13) Family records. Statements of fact concerning personal or family history contained in family Bibles, genealogies, charts, engravings on rings, inscriptions on family portraits, engravings on urns, crypts, or tombstones, or the like.

(14) Records of documents affecting an interest in property. The record of a document purporting to establish or affect an interest in property, as proof of the content of the original recorded document and its execution and delivery by each person by whom it purports to have been executed, if the record is a record of public office and an applicable statute authorizes the recording of documents of that kind in that office.

(15) Statements in documents affecting an interest in property. A statement contained in a document purporting to establish or affect an interest in property if the matter stated was relevant to the purpose of the document, unless dealings with the property since the document was made have been inconsistent with the truth of the statement or the purport of the document.

(16) Statements in ancient documents. Statements in a document in existence twenty years or more the authenticity of which is established.

(17) Market reports, commercial publications. Market quotations, tabulations, lists, directories, or other published compilations, generally used and relied upon by the public or by persons in particular occupations.

(18) Learned treatises. To the extent called to the attention of an expert witness upon cross-examination or relied upon by him in direct examination, statements contained in published treatises, periodicals, or pamphlets on a subject of history, medicine, or other science or art, established as a reliable authority by the testimony or admission of the witness or by other expert testimony or by judicial notice. If admitted, the statements may be read into evidence but may not be received as exhibits.

(19) Reputation concerning personal or family history. Reputation among members of his family by blood, adoption, or marriage, or among his associates, or in the community, concerning a person's birth, adoption, marriage, divorce, death, legitimacy, relationship by blood, adoption, or marriage, ancestry, or other similar fact of his personal or family history.

(20) Reputation concerning boundaries or general history. Reputation in a community, arising before the controversy, as to boundaries of or customs affecting lands in the community, and reputation as to events of general history important to the community or State or nation in which located.

(21) Reputation as to character. Reputation of a person's character among his associates or in the community.

(22) Judgment of previous conviction. Evidence of a final judgment, entered after a trial or upon a plea of guilty (but not upon a plea of nolo contendere), adjudging a person guilty of a crime punishable by death or imprisonment in excess of one year, to prove any fact essential to sustain the judgment, but not including, when offered by the government in a criminal prosecution for purposes other than impeachment, judgments against persons other than the accused. The pendency of an appeal may be shown but does not affect admissibility.

(23) Judgment as to personal, family, or general history, or boundaries. Judgments as proof of matters of personal, family, or general history, or boundaries, essential to the judgment, if the same would be provable by evidence of reputation.

(24) Other exceptions. A statement not specifically covered by any of the foregoing exceptions but having equivalent circumstantial guarantees of trustworthiness, if the court determines that (A) the statement is offered as evidence of a material fact; (B) the statement is more probative on the point for which it is offered than any other evidence which the proponent can procure through reasonable efforts; and (C) the general purposes of these rules and the interests of justice will best be served by admission of the statement into evidence. However, a statement may not be admitted under this exception unless the proponent of it makes known to the adverse party sufficiently in advance of the trial or hearing to provide the adverse party with a fair opportunity to prepare to meet it, his intention to offer the statement and the particulars of it, including the name and address of the declarant.

Wyoming Supreme Court Note: Nothing in rule 803(8) makes police or other law enforcement reports admissible where § 31-229, W.S. 1957 would require exclusion. Similarly, nothing in rule 803(22) makes prior judgments of conviction admissible in evidence where §§ 6-13 or 31-241, W.S. 1957 would require exclusion.

RULE 804. HEARSAY EXCEPTIONS; DECLARANT UNAVAILABLE

(a) Definition of unavailability. "Unavailability as a witness" includes situations in which the declarant--

(1) is exempted by ruling of the court on the ground of privilege from testifying concerning the subject matter of his statement; or

(2) persists in refusing to testify concerning the subject matter of his statement despite an order of the court to do so;

or

(3) testifies to a lack of memory of the subject matter of his statement; or

(4) is unable to be present or to testify at the hearing because of death or then existing physical or mental illness or infirmity; or

(5) is absent from the hearing and the proponent of his statement has been unable to procure his attendance by process or other reasonable means.

A declarant is not unavailable as a witness if his exemption, refusal, claim of lack of memory, inability, or absence is due to the procurement or wrongdoing of the proponent of his statement for the purpose of preventing the witness from attending or testifying.

(b) Hearsay exceptions. The following are not excluded by the hearsay rule if the declarant is unavailable as a witness:

(1) Former testimony. Testimony given as a witness at another hearing of the same or a different proceeding, or in a deposition taken in compliance with law in the course of the same or another proceeding, if the party against whom the testimony is now offered, or, in a civil action or proceeding, a predecessor in interest, had an opportunity and similar motive to develop the testimony by direct, cross, or redirect examination.

(2) Statement under belief of impending death. In a prosecution for homicide or in a civil action or proceeding, a statement made by a declarant while believing that his death was imminent, concerning the cause or circumstances of what he believed to be his impending death.

(3) Statement against interest. A statement which was at the time of its making so far contrary to the declarant's pecuniary or proprietary interest, or so far tended to subject him to civil or criminal liability, or to render invalid a claim by him against another, that a reasonable man in his position would not have made the statement unless he believed it to be true. A statement tending to expose the declarant to criminal liability and offered to exculpate the excused is not admissible unless corroborating circumstances clearly indicate the trustworthiness of the statement.

(4) Statement of personal or family history. (A) A statement concerning the declarant's own birth, adoption, marriage, divorce, legitimacy, relationship by blood, adoption, or marriage, ancestry, or other similar fact of personal or family history, even though declarant had no means of acquiring personal knowledge of the matter stated; or (P) a statement concerning the foregoing matters, and death also, of another person, if the declarant was related to the other by blood, adoption, or marriage or was so intimately associated with the other's family as to be likely to have accurate information concerning the matter declared.

(5) Statement of recent perception. In a civil action or proceeding, a statement, not in response to the instigation of a person engaged in investigating, litigating, or settling a claim, which narrates, describes, or explains an event or condition recently perceived by the declarant, made in good faith, not in contemplation of pending or anticipated litigation in which he was interested, and while his recollection was clear.

(6) Other exceptions. A statement not specifically covered by any of the foregoing exceptions but having equivalent circumstantial guarantees of trustworthiness, if the court determines that (A) the statement is offered as evidence of a material fact; (B) the statement is more probative on the point for which it is offered than any other evidence which the proponent can procure through reasonable efforts; and (C) the general purposes of these rules and the interests of justice will best be served by admission of the statement into evidence. However, a statement may not be admitted under this exception unless the proponent of it makes known to the adverse party sufficiently in advance of the trial or hearing to provide the adverse party with a fair opportunity to prepare to meet it, his intention to offer the statement and the particulars of it, including the name and address of the declarant.

Wyoming Committee Note: Subdivision (a)(5) is amended by striking out the phrase "(or in the case of a hearsay exception under subdivision (b)(2), (3) or (4), his attendance or testimony)." Subdivision (b)(5) is the Uniform Rule, added to the federal rule, and subdivision (b)(6) is Federal Rule 804(b)(5).

RULE 805. HEARSAY WITHIN HEARSAY

Hearsay included within hearsay is not excluded under the hearsay rule if each part of the combined statements conforms with an exception to the hearsay rule provided in these rules.

RULE 806. ATTACKING AND SUPPORTING CREDIBILITY OF DECLARANT

When a hearsay statement, or a statement defined in rule 801 (d)(2), (C), (D), or (E), has been admitted in evidence, the credibility of the declarant may be attacked and if attacked may be supported by any evidence which would be admissible for those purposes if declarant had testified as a witness. Evidence of a statement or conduct by the declarant at any time, inconsistent with his hearsay statement, is not subject to any requirement that he may have been afforded an opportunity to deny or explain. If the party against whom a hearsay statement has been admitted calls the declarant as a witness, the party is entitled to examine him on the statement as if under cross-examination.

IX. AUTHENTICATION AND IDENTIFICATION

Rule 901. Requirement of authentication or identification:

- (a) General provision.
- (b) Illustrations:
 - (1) Testimony of witness with knowledge.
 - (2) Nonexpert opinion on handwriting.
 - (3) Comparison by trier or expert witness.
 - (4) Distinctive characteristics and the like.
 - (5) Voice identification.
 - (6) Telephone conversations.
 - (7) Public records or reports.
 - (8) Ancient documents or data compilation.
 - (9) Process or system.
 - (10) Methods provided by statute or rule.

Rule 902. Self-authentication:

- (1) Domestic public documents under seal.
- (2) Domestic public documents not under seal.
- (3) Foreign public documents.
- (4) Certified copies of public records.
- (5) Official publications.
- (6) Newspapers and periodicals.
- (7) Trade inscriptions and the like.
- (8) Acknowledged documents.
- (9) Commercial paper and related documents.

- (10) Presumptions under Acts of Congress.
Rule 903. Subscribing witness' testimony unnecessary.

RULE 901. REQUIREMENT OF AUTHENTICATION OR IDENTIFICATION

(a) General provision. The requirement of authentication or identification as a condition precedent to admissibility is satisfied by evidence sufficient to support a finding that the matter in question is what its proponent claims.

(b) Illustrations. By way of illustration only, and not by way of limitation, the following are examples of authentication or identification conforming with the requirements of this rule:

(1) Testimony of witness with knowledge. Testimony that a matter is what it is claimed to be.

(2) Nonexpert opinion on handwriting. Nonexpert opinion as to the genuineness of handwriting, based upon familiarity not acquired for purposes of the litigation.

(3) Comparison by trier or expert witness. Comparison by the trier of fact or by expert witnesses with specimens which have been authenticated.

(4) Distinctive characteristics and the like. Appearance, contents, substance, internal patterns, or other distinctive characteristics, taken in conjunction with circumstances.

(5) Voice identification. Identification of a voice, whether heard firsthand or through mechanical or electronic transmission or recording, by opinion based upon hearing the voice at any time under circumstances connecting it with the alleged speaker.

(6) Telephone conversations. Telephone conversations, by evidence that a call was made to the number assigned at the time by the telephone company to a particular person or business, if (A) in the case of a person, circumstances, including self-identification, show the person answering to be the one called, or (B) in the case of a business, the call was made to a place of business and the conversation related to business reasonably transacted over the telephone.

(7) Public records or reports. Evidence that a writing authorized by law to be recorded or filed and in fact recorded or filed in a public office, or a purported public record, report, statement, or data compilation, in any form, is from the public office where items of this nature are kept.

(8) Ancient documents or data compilation. Evidence that a document or data compilation, in any form, (A) is in such condition as to create no suspicion concerning its authenticity, (B) was in a place where it, if authentic, would likely be, and (C) has been in existence 20 years or more at the time it is offered.

(9) Process or system. Evidence describing a process or system used to produce a result and showing that the process or system produces an accurate result.

(10) Methods provided by statute or rule. Any method of authentication or identification provided by statute or by other rules prescribed by the Supreme Court of Wyoming.

RULE 902. SELF-AUTHENTICATION

(a) Extrinsic evidence of authenticity as a condition precedent to admissibility is not required with respect to the following:

(1) Domestic public documents under seal. A document bearing a seal purporting to be that of the United States, or of any state, district, commonwealth, territory, or insular possession thereof, or the Panama Canal Zone, or the Trust Territory of the Pacific Islands, or of a political subdivision, department, officer, or agency thereof, and a signature purporting to be an attestation or execution.

(2) Domestic public documents not under seal. A document purporting to bear the signature in his official capacity of an officer or employee of any entity included in paragraph (1) hereof, having no seal, if a public officer having a seal and having official duties in the district or political subdivision of the officer or employee certifies under seal that the signer has the official capacity and that the signature is genuine.

(3) Foreign public documents. A document purporting to be executed or attested in his official capacity by a person authorized by the laws of a foreign country to make the execution or attestation, and accompanied by a final certification as to the genuineness of the signature and official position (A) of the executing or attesting person, or (B) of any foreign official whose certificate of genuineness of signature and official position relates to the execution or attestation or is in a chain of certificates of genuineness of signature and official position relating to the execution or attestation. A final certification may be made by a secretary of embassy or legation, consul general, consul, vice consul, or consular agent of the United States, or a diplomatic or consular official of the foreign country assigned or accredited to the United States. If reasonable opportunity has been given to all parties to investigate the authenticity and accuracy of official documents, the court may, for good cause shown, order that they be treated as presumptively authentic without final certification or permit them to be evidenced by an attested summary with or without final certification.

(4) Certified copies of public records. A copy of an official record or report or entry therein, or of a document authorized by law to be recorded or filed and actually recorded or filed in a public office, including data compilations in any form, certified as correct by the custodian or other person authorized to make the certification, by certificate complying with paragraph (1), (2), or (3) of this rule or complying with any Act of Congress or rule prescribed by the Supreme Court pursuant to statutory authority.

(5) Official publications. Books, pamphlets, or other publications purporting to be issued by public authority.

(6) Newspapers and periodicals. Printed materials purporting to be newspapers or periodicals.

(7) Trade inscriptions and the like. Inscriptions, signs, tags, or labels purporting to have been affixed in the course of business and indicating ownership, control, or origin.

(8) Acknowledged documents. Documents accompanied by a certificate of acknowledgment executed in the manner provided by law by a notary public or other officer authorized by law to take acknowledgments.

(9) Commercial paper and related documents. Commercial paper, signatures thereon, and documents relating thereto to the extent provided by general commercial law.

(10) Presumptions under Acts of Congress or statutes of Wyoming. Any signature, document, or other matter declared by Act of Congress or statutes of Wyoming to be presumptively or prima facie genuine or authentic.

(b) Lack of record. A written statement that after diligent search no record or entry of a specified tenor is found to exist in the records designated by the statement, authenticated as provided in subdivision (a)(1) and (a)(2) of this rule in the case of a domestic record, or complying with the requirements of subdivision (a)(3) of this rule for a summary in the case of a foreign record, is admissible as evidence that the records contain no such record or entry.

(c) Other proof. This rule does not prevent the proof of official records or of entry or lack of entry therein by any other method authorized by law.

(d) Seal dispensed with. In the event any office or officer, authenticating any documents under the provisions of this rule, has no official seal, and so certifies, then authentication by seal is dispensed with.

Wyoming Committee Note: WRE 902(a) is Federal Rule 902. WRE 902(b), (c) and (d) are the former Rule 44(b), (c) and (d), W.R.C.P. Rule 44, W.R.C.P. is superseded.

RULE 903. SUBSCRIBING WITNESS' TESTIMONY UNNECESSARY

The testimony of a subscribing witness is not necessary to authenticate a writing unless required by the laws of the jurisdiction whose laws govern the validity of the writing.

Wyoming Supreme Court Note: This rule does not affect §§ 2-80 and 2-81, W.S. 1957.

X. CONTENTS OF WRITINGS, RECORDINGS, AND PHOTOGRAPHS

- Rule 1001. Definitions:
- (1) Writings and recordings.
 - (2) Photographs.
 - (3) Original.
 - (4) Duplicate.
- Rule 1002. Requirement of original.

- Rule 1003. Admissibility of duplicates.
Rule 1004. Admissibility of other evidence of contents:
 (1) Originals lost or destroyed.
 (2) Original not obtainable.
 (3) Original in possession of opponent.
 (4) Collateral matters.
Rule 1005. Public records.
Rule 1006. Summaries.
Rule 1007. Testimony or written admission of party.
Rule 1008. Functions of court and jury.

RULE 1001. DEFINITIONS

For purposes of this article the following definitions are applicable:

(1) Writings and recordings. "Writings" and "recordings" consist of letters, words, sounds, or numbers, or their equivalent, set down by handwriting, typewriting, printing, photostating, photographing, magnetic impulse, mechanical or electronic recording, or other form of data compilation.

(2) Photographs. "Photographs" include still photographs, X-ray films, video tapes, and motion pictures.

(3) Original. An "original" of a writing or recording is the writing or recording itself or any counterpart intended to have the same effect by a person executing or issuing it. An "original" of a photograph includes the negative or any print therefrom. If data are stored in a computer or similar device, any printout or other output readable by sight, shown to reflect the data accurately, is an "original".

(4) Duplicate. A "duplicate" is a counterpart produced by the same impression as the original, or from the same matrix, or by means of photography, including enlargements and miniatures, or by mechanical or electronic re-recording, or by chemical reproduction, or by other equivalent techniques which accurately reproduces the original.

Wyoming Committee Note: This is the federal rule with the addition of the word "sounds" after "words" in paragraph (1).

RULE 1002. REQUIREMENT OF ORIGINAL

To prove the content of a writing, recording, or photograph, the original writing, recording, or photograph is required, except as otherwise provided in these rules or by statute.

RULE 1003. ADMISSIBILITY OF DUPLICATES

A duplicate is admissible under this rule or as may be otherwise provided by statute to the same extent as an original unless (1) a genuine question is raised as to the authenticity or continuing effectiveness of the original or (2) in the circumstances it would be unfair to admit the duplicate in lieu of the original.

Wyoming Committee Note: This is the federal rule, with the addition of the phrase "under this rule or as may be otherwise provided by statute" and the phrase "or continuing effectiveness".

RULE 1004. ADMISSIBILITY OF OTHER EVIDENCE OF CONTENTS

The original is not required, and other evidence of the contents of a writing, recording, or photograph is admissible if--

(1) Originals lost or destroyed. All originals are lost or have been destroyed, unless the proponent lost or destroyed them in bad faith; or

(2) Original not obtainable. No original can be obtained by any available judicial process or procedure; or

(3) Original in possession of opponent. At a time when an original was under the control of the party against whom offered, he was put on notice, by the pleadings or otherwise, that the contents would be a subject of proof at the hearing, and he does not produce the original at the hearing; or

(4) Collateral matters. The writing, recording, or photograph is not closely related to a controlling issue.

RULE 1005. PUBLIC RECORDS

The contents of an official record, or of a document authorized to be recorded or filed and actually recorded or filed, including data compilations in any form, if otherwise admissible, may be proved by copy, certified as correct in accordance with rule 902 or testified to be correct by a witness who has compared it with the original. If a copy which complies with the foregoing cannot be obtained by the exercise of reasonable diligence, then other evidence of the contents may be given.

RULE 1006. SUMMARIES

The contents of voluminous writings, recordings, or photographs which cannot conveniently be examined in court may be presented in the form of a chart, summary, or calculation. The originals, or duplicates, shall be made available for examination or copying, or both, by other parties at reasonable time and place. The court may order that they be produced in court.

RULE 1007. TESTIMONY OR WRITTEN ADMISSION OF PARTY

Contents of writings, recordings, or photographs may be proved by the testimony or deposition of the party against whom offered or by his written admission, without accounting for the nonproduction of the original.

RULE 1008. FUNCTIONS OF COURT AND JURY

When the admissibility of other evidence of contents of writings, recordings, or photographs under these rules depends upon the fulfillment of a condition of fact, the question whether the condition has been fulfilled is ordinarily for the court to determine in accordance with the provisions of rule 104. However, when an issue is raised (a) whether the asserted writing ever existed, or (b) whether another writing, recording, or photograph produced at the trial is the original, or (c) whether other evidence of contents correctly reflects the contents, the issue is for the trier of fact to determine as in the case of other issues of fact.

Wyoming Committee Note: This rule does not supersede the "lost will statute," §§ 2-72 through 2-75, W.S. 1957.

XI. MISCELLANEOUS RULES

- Rule 1101. Applicability of rules:
 (a) Rules applicable.
 (b) Rules inapplicable:
 (1) Preliminary questions of fact.
 (2) Grand jury.
 (3) Miscellaneous proceedings.
 (4) Contempt proceedings.
- Rule 1102. Statutes superseded.
 Rule 1103. Title.
 Rule 1104. Effective date.

RULE 1101. APPLICABILITY OF RULES

(a) Rules applicable. Except as otherwise provided in subdivision (b), these rules apply to all actions and proceedings in the courts of this state.

(b) Rules inapplicable. The rules other than those with respect to privileges do not apply in the following situations:

(1) Preliminary questions of fact. The determination of questions of fact preliminary to admissibility of evidence when the issue is to be determined by the court under rule 104(a).

(2) Grand jury. Proceedings before grand juries.

(3) Miscellaneous proceedings. Proceedings for extradition or rendition; preliminary examination in criminal cases; sentencing, or granting or revoking probation; juvenile proceedings other than adjudicatory hearings; issuance of warrants for arrest, criminal summonses, and search warrants; and proceedings with respect to release on bail or otherwise.

(4) Contempt proceedings in which the court may act summarily.

Wyoming Committee Note: This is the Uniform Rule with the deletion from subsection (b)(3) of "detention hearings", and the addition of "juvenile proceedings other than adjudicatory hearings;". Although the terminology in juvenile proceedings is deliberately made different from that in criminal proceedings, the resemblance to criminal procedure is obvious and constitutional guarantees of due process apply. Adjudicatory hearings are the equivalent of trial so the rules of evidence apply. Detention hearings and dispositional hearings are equivalents of bail hearings, preliminary hearings and sentencing hearings, and as in criminal cases, the rules of evidence do not apply. "Transfer hearings" to determine whether the defendant should be tried as a juvenile or as an adult are often critical, but the Committee recommends that the matter be left to the discretion of the judge without restricting all cases to the Rules of Evidence.

RULE 1102. STATUTES SUPERSEDED

From and after the effective date of these rules, the sections of the Wyoming Statutes, 1957, as amended and recodified in Ch. 188, S.L. Wyo. 1977, hereinafter enumerated, shall be superseded, and such statutes and all other laws in conflict with these rules shall be of no further force or effect:

§ 1-12-101, W.S. recodified § 1-138, W.S. 1957
 § 1-12-106, W.S. recodified § 1-143, W.S. 1957
 § 1-12-201, W.S. recodified § 1-160, W.S. 1957
 § 1-12-202, W.S. recodified § 1-161, W.S. 1957
 § 1-12-203, W.S. recodified § 1-162, W.S. 1957

§§ 1-12-301--1-12-303, W.S. recodified §§ 1-165--1-169, W.S. 1957
 §§ 1-12-401--1-12-402, W.S. recodified §§ 1-170--1-173, W.S. 1957
 §§ 1-12-501--1-12-502, W.S. recodified §§ 1-174--1-177, W.S. 1957

§ 1-12-103, W.S. recodified § 1-140, W.S. 1957 and is not superseded.

RULE 1103. TITLE

These rules may be known and cited as the Wyoming Rules of Evidence and abbreviated WRE.

RULE 1104. EFFECTIVE DATE

These rules will take effect and be in force from and after the 1st day of January, A.D. 1978.

For purposes of conformity to the Wyoming Rules of Evidence, Rules 30, 43, and 44.1 of the Wyoming Rules of Civil Procedure are amended, and Rule 32(c) and 44 of the Wyoming Rules of Civil Procedure are abrogated, as follows, effective January 1, 1978.

AMENDMENTS TO THE WYOMING RULES OF CIVIL PROCEDURE

- Rule 30. Depositions upon oral examination.
 (c) Examination and Cross-Examination; Record of Examination; Oath; Objections.
- Rule 32. Use of depositions in court proceedings.
 (c) Effect of Taking or Using Depositions.
- Rule 43. Taking of testimony.
 (a) Form.
 (b) Scope of Examination and Cross-Examination.
 (c) Record of Excluded Evidence.
 (d) Affirmation in Lieu of Oath.
 (e) Evidence on Motions.
 (f) Interpreters.
- Rule 44. Proof of official record.
- Rule 44.1 Determination of foreign law.

RULE 30. DEPOSITIONS UPON ORAL EXAMINATION

(c) Examination and Cross-Examination; Record of Examination; Oath; Objections. Examination and cross-examination of witnesses may proceed as permitted at the trial under the provisions of the Wyoming Rules of Evidence. The officer before whom the deposition is to be taken shall put the witness on oath and shall personally, or by someone acting under his direction and in his presence, record the testimony of the witness. The testimony shall be taken stenographically or recorded by any other means ordered in accordance with subdivision (b)(4) of this rule. If requested by one of the parties, the testimony shall be transcribed. All objections made at the time of the examination to the qualifications of the officer taking the deposition, or to the manner of taking it, or to the evidence presented, or to the conduct of any party, and any other objection to the proceedings, shall be noted by the officer upon the deposition. Evidence objected to shall be taken subject to the objections. In lieu of participating in the oral examination, parties may serve written questions in a sealed envelope on the party taking the deposition and he shall transmit them to the officer, who shall propound them to the witness and record the answers verbatim.

RULE 32. USE OF DEPOSITIONS IN COURT PROCEEDINGS

[(c) Effect of Taking or Using Depositions.] (Abrogated)

RULE 43. TAKING OF TESTIMONY

(a) Form. In all trials the testimony of witnesses shall be taken orally in open court, unless otherwise provided by statute, by these rules, the Wyoming Rules of Evidence, or other rules adopted by the Supreme Court of Wyoming.

[(b) Scope of Examination and Cross-Examination.] (Abrogated)

[(c) Record of Excluded Evidence.] (Abrogated)

(d) Affirmation in Lieu of Oath. Whenever under these rules an oath is required to be taken, a solemn affirmation may be accepted in lieu thereof.

(e) Evidence on Motions. When a motion is based on facts not appearing of record the court may hear the matter on affidavits presented by the respective parties, but the court may direct that the matter be heard wholly or partly on oral testimony or deposition.

(f) Interpreters. The court may appoint an interpreter of its own selection and may fix his reasonable compensation. The compensation shall be paid out of funds provided by law or by one or more of the parties as the court may direct, and may be taxed ultimately as costs, in the discretion of the court.

RULE 44. PROOF OF OFFICIAL RECORD

(Abrogated)

RULE 44.1 DETERMINATION OF FOREIGN LAW

A party who intends to raise an issue concerning the law of a foreign country shall give notice in his pleadings or other reasonable written notice. The court, in determining foreign law, may consider any relevant material or source, including testimony, whether or not submitted by a party or admissible under the Wyoming Rules of Evidence. The court's determination shall be treated as a ruling on a question of law.

For purposes of conformity to the Wyoming Rules of Evidence, Rules 27, 27.1 and 29 of the Wyoming Rules of Criminal Procedure are amended to read as follows, effective January 1, 1978.

AMENDMENTS TO THE WYOMING RULES OF CRIMINAL PROCEDURE

Rule 27. Taking of testimony.
Rule 27.1 Determination of foreign law.
Rule 29. Interpreters.

RULE 27. TAKING OF TESTIMONY

In all trials the testimony of witnesses shall be taken orally in open court, unless otherwise provided by statute or by these rules, the Wyoming Rules of Evidence, or other rules adopted by the Supreme Court of Wyoming.

RULE 27.1. DETERMINATION OF FOREIGN LAW

A party who intends to raise an issue concerning the law of a foreign country shall give reasonable written notice. The court, in determining foreign law, may consider any relevant material or source, including testimony, whether or not submitted by a party or admissible under the Wyoming Rules of Evidence. The court's determination shall be treated as a ruling on a question of law.

RULE 29. INTERPRETERS

The court may appoint an interpreter of its own selection and may fix the reasonable compensation of such interpreter. Such compensation shall be paid out of funds provided by law or by the state, as the court may direct.
