

IN THE SUPREME COURT, STATE OF WYOMING

October Term, A.D. 1998

In the Matter of Amending)
Rule 7 of the Rules Governing)
Small Claims Cases)

IN THE SUPREME COURT
STATE OF WYOMING
FILED

FEB 23 1999

Judy Pacheco
JUDY PACHECO, CLERK

ORDER

The Court considered the necessity of implementing the revised Wyoming Rules of Appellate Procedure, which became effective on November 1, 1992; and the Court having found that former Rule 7 of the Rules Governing Small Claims Cases refers to the Wyoming Rules of Appellate Procedure for Courts of Limited Jurisdiction, which was superseded by the revised Wyoming Rules of Appellate Procedure by Order dated July 31, 1992; it is, therefore

ORDERED that Rule 7 of the Rules Governing Small Claims Cases be amended as follows:

Rule 7. Appeals.

Appeals of small claims actions to district court shall be processed pursuant to W.R.A.P. and only on questions of law and not for a review of the sufficiency of evidence. (Johnson v. Statewide Collections, Inc., 778 P.2d 93 (Wyo. 1989)).

DATED this 23rd day of February, 1999.
